

Brazos Tax Group, LLP Acquired by Altus Group

Effective June 1, 2010, Brazos joins Altus Group, the leading multidisciplinary provider of independent real estate consulting and professional advisory services worldwide. With a staff of over 1,600, Altus Group has a network of over 60 offices in 14 countries worldwide, including Canada, UK, Australia, Asia, the United States and the Middle East.

This acquisition provides Altus with an increased presence in the United States through the extension of property tax services and a significant operations beachhead for future growth, including additional services such as Cost Consulting, Project Management and Research, Valuation and Appraisal services.

As part of Altus Group, the experts you've come to know at Brazos will continue to work diligently on your behalf in areas such as business and personal property compliance and appeals, real estate valuation appeals and property tax payment administration, and due diligence. However, it will be anything BUT business "as usual." In fact, we'll now offer even greater depth of knowledge, international reach and an enhanced array of services...with the same commitment to delivering accurate and timely advice.

"A shared corporate culture and demonstrated mutual commitment to growing market share make this a natural and exciting extension of our relationship," said Jim Derbyshire, Global President, Tax, Altus Group. "We know Brazos' business success, years of expertise and local insight will provide a solid foundation to enhance Altus' expanding scope."

"Altus offers us the ability to provide our clients with more comprehensive coverage while maintaining our commitment to delivering accurate and timely advice," said Steve Mills, CMI, President, Brazos Tax Group. "We look forward to nurturing these relationships as we leverage our combined abilities."

Altus Group

Street Smart. World Wise.

For more information, visit altusgroup.com or email brazos@altusgroup.com.